Captain Ellie and the Floating Jungle

Illustrated story

All Aboard the Banana Breeze

Captain Ellie gave her tiny silver whistle one small toot. Tweet! That meant adventure time. Mango tied the ropes, Penny took the wheel, Lulu folded blankets, Oscar climbed the lookout, and Hugo heaved the fruit baskets aboard. The Banana Breeze was ready to go.

Up Past the Clouds

The Banana Breeze sailed down a shiny river, swish swish swish. Then Captain Ellie pressed the round yellow button. Pop! Whirr! Whoosh! Up they went, past the birds, past the clouds, into a sky as soft as cotton.

The Floating Jungle

There it was, the most curious thing! Little green islands floated slow and gentle in the sky, with flowers and vines dangling off the edges. Oscar blinked. Mango sniffed. Lulu gasped. The clouds really did smell a little like mangoes.

A Tiny Voice in the Clouds

"Help! Help!" Oscar heard it first. Down below, a baby panda sat on a spinning leaf, drifting further and further. Penny steered slowly, slowly. Mango tossed a soft rope. And Captain Ellie reached out her long, gentle trunk and lifted the panda safely onto the deck.

Under the Rainbow Tree

They sat together under a rainbow tree, sharing bananas and starfruit and one enormous stripy melon. When the stars came out, Captain Ellie gave one small toot. Tweet. The Banana Breeze turned for home, with one more friend tucked into Lulu's fluffiest blanket.
