

Kai Flies on a Plane

Come along for Kai's very first flight into the sunny blue sky.

My First Flight

My name is Kai. Today I am going on a plane for the first time. Many children feel a little nervous before their first flight. It is okay to feel that way.

The Bag Belt

First, we go to a counter. My grown-up shows our tickets. Our big bag rides away on a moving belt. We will usually see it again after the flight.

Gray Trays

Next, we walk through security. I put my backpack in a gray tray. The security officer helps everyone. I walk through a tall doorway, one step at a time.

Waiting at the Gate

Then we wait at the gate. Big windows show the planes outside. I can see our plane. It is white with a blue tail.

Click Goes My Belt

Now we walk onto the plane. I find my blue seat by the window. The flight attendant shows us how to click our seatbelts. Click! My belt is snug.

Up We Go

The engines get loud, and the plane goes faster and faster. Then it lifts up into the sky. Sometimes my ears feel full or funny. I can try to swallow or take a sip of water. My grown-up holds my hand.

Above the Clouds

Up high, the clouds look like soft white fields. Most of the flight is calm and quiet. The flight attendant brings drinks and snacks. I can look, read, or rest.

I Know Now

Later, the plane comes down gently. The wheels touch the ground with a bump. We get our big bag from the belt. I flew on a plane, and now I know what happens.

THE END

Come along for Kai's very first flight into the sunny blue sky.
