MADE WITH LITTLE STORYBOOK

Noa's Eight Nights of Light

littlestorybook.ai

The First Night

On the first night of Hanukkah, Noa set the menorah in the window. Saba lit the helper candle and one more. Noa sang the blessing. "I want everyone to see our light," she said.

Luca Waves

On the second night, Luca saw the little lights from the courtyard. He waved. Noa waved back, and he ran upstairs to play dreidel. Spin, spin, spin! Then Mochi grabbed the dreidel and ran off with it!

Fried in Oil

On the third night, Lin and Nai Nai came, with a plate of sesame balls. Saba served crispy latkes. "Fried in oil, just like latkes!" said Nai Nai. Everyone laughed and shared both.

Dara Counts

On the fourth night, Dara came. "One, two, three, four, and the helper!" he counted. The window was glowing brighter every night.

A Clapping Song

On the fifth night, Amara came, and taught Noa a clapping song. Clap, clap, slap, clap! They sang it until Saba laughed and joined in.

Snow

On the sixth night, big snow came down. It piled up on the windowsill outside. "Now nobody can see our light," said Noa.

Still Shining

On the seventh night, the courtyard was white and empty. Nobody came. Noa sat by the window. Saba sat beside her. "A little light still shines," he said, "even when you cannot see who is looking."

We Saw It!

On the eighth night, Noa looked down. The whole courtyard was full! All her friends stood in the snow, holding up lights of their own. "We saw your light every night!" they called.

Eight Nights of Light

Everyone came up. All eight candles and the helper shone in the window. Noa looked at her friends' faces in the glow. "Happy Hanukkah," she whispered. "Thank you for seeing my light."

THE END

Put your child in this story

Free to try. Scan the code or visit littlestorybook.ai/stories/en/noas-eight-nights-of-light-hanukkah-story

Hear this storybook read aloud

Scan, and it performs itself: voice, music and sound words. Free, no account.

littlestorybook.ai/l/noas-eight-nights-of-light-hanukkah-story

LITTLE STORYBOOK
littlestorybook.ai